

Inspiration Legacy Award

Barbara Jackson | 2018

You have already heard Steve Sessions name mentioned several times this evening. He continues to be a dedicated Burns supporter and adjunct professor, and a wonderful friend to all of us at the Burns School.

- He was instrumental in establishing a liaison between the Colorado Real Estate Journal and his students. This allowed the student articles to be highlighted in the Journal resulting in invaluable industry exposure.
- Steve just completed a series of Institute of Real Estate Management workshops for our students focusing on the world of Property Management as a career option. They were a huge hit with many students in attendance!

Steven S. Sessions
*Chief Executive Officer
Sessions Group LLC,
Denver*

- This school year, Steve was a finalist for the Outstanding Daniels Adjunct Professor award.

But what you may not know is Steve's humanitarian work:

- In March, Steve and his wife Debbie, along with the Inspired Mentors of the English Corner, were awarded the "2017 Thank You America Award" presented by Aurora Mayor Hogan and the Office of International and Immigrant Affairs recognizing the inspiration and difference they have made in the lives of dozens of immigrants and refugees across the city of Aurora. This award comes after years of dedicated work with refugees in our community.
- Steve has his own large family – many kids and grandkids. He has mentored so many students near and far. He does so much for so many and we are honored to be included in that long list.

Please help me in recognizing Steve Sessions as the 2018 Burns Legacy Award recipient for his many contributions to our school and beyond.
